

ChemTAG - Monday, June 5, 2017
4:30 - 8:00pm
Rutgers Geology Museum
at Old Queen's Campus, New Brunswick
85 Somerset Street, New Brunswick, NJ 08901

You're Invited:

Join the Morris/Essex local chapter of ACS's ChemTAG on Monday, June 5th at the Rutgers Geology Museum as we explore the many uses of stable isotopes in geology.

Dr. Lauren Neitzke – Director of Rutgers Geology Museum will be presenting

Topics:

Stable Isotopes and Their Applications in Geology

- Addressing Enviro based NGSS strands in the high school chemistry classroom

Fee: $5.00 for light refreshments

Register and Pay:

www.njacs.org/chemtag

Parking:

Parking is free. Park in Lots 11, 26 & 30
Lot 11 is closest!

<http://rumaps.rutgers.edu/location/lot-11>

