

From Sniff to Sip: A Sensory Adventure into the Fragrance of Wine

Kelly Jones, Scent Sommelier and CEO and Founder of Kelly+Jones

*Heidi Bonwell, WSET2
Regional Manager Tomasello Winery*

The North Jersey Metro Women's Chemists Committee (NJWCC) in conjunction with the North Jersey Section of the American Chemical Society (NJACS) would like to cordially invite you to the first installment of our women's entrepreneur series for a fun, interactive Sensory Adventure into the Fragrance of Wine.

Scent Sommelier Kelly Jones, the founder of Kelly+Jones, will share her inspirational story and fragrances designed to pair with wine. Her unique perspective on wine takes away the stuffiness for wine beginners while taking the game up a notch for the experienced wine connoisseur. Kelly has been featured in Food and Wine, Wine Enthusiast and on The Today Show.

Heidi Bonwell, is certified with distinction as a Wine & Spirits Education Trust, Level 2 (WSET 2) expert and is regional manager at Tomasello Winery. Heidi will share her inspirational story on how she turned her passion for wine into a rewarding career and some tricks of the trade on all things wine- starting with to how to get the most out of that first sip and much more.

Location: Vibe - Riverdale Square Mall, 92 Route 23, Riverdale, NJ 07457*

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 12th from 7:00 to 9:00 pm*

Cost: $35/person* -- please register and pay at www.njacs.org/wcc-2018-12-12*

Fee includes presentations, light fare with complimentary wine tasting for attendees 21 and up with valid ID*

Proceeds from the event and 50/50 raffle will go to Tackle Kids Cancer and Project Seed.

A special thank you to our sponsors:

